

The EMAS Archaeological Society

EMAS Membership Form 2019/20

Membership of the Society gives the benefit of lectures on specialised archaeological subjects and visits to places of archaeological, architectural and historical interest throughout the year.

Lectures take place in central London, at the Museum of London Clore Learning Centre on a Friday evening.

Visits to archaeological and historical sites take place on Saturdays, departing from either the Embankment Underground Station, or Baker Street Underground Station by coach. The point of departure depends on the destination. Study Tours take place twice a year and usually last between 5 and 8 days.

New subscriptions are due on 1st October each year. However, if you joined the Society after 1st January, the next subscription is not due until 1st October of the following year.

Single membership is £18 and double membership for those at the same address is £25. Please complete the form below and send it together with a cheque for £18 or £25 made payable to EMAS Arch. Soc. to:

The Treasurer, Mrs C Balyuzi, 8 Sumatra Road, London NW6 1PU.
